HASSAN DISTRICT.

Notification No. F3. C. 140—43, dated 11th November 1944.

Whereas several carts are required for transport of food grains from the places where food grains are grown or stocked to the rail heads, the intending contractors who are willing to supply carts for such transport should submit sealed tenders to the Amildars of their respective Taluks with quotations of rates per cart per mile for Malnad and Maidan places on or before the 25th of November 1944.

Person whose tender is accepted should furnish a cash security of Rs. 100.

A cart load means 9 bags of 90 seers each.

[If 9 bags could not be loaded in the cart, the number of bags that could be loaded and quantity (in seers) should be mentioned.]

Full particulars of the above details should be mentioned in the tender applications and such of the tenders which do not contain the full particulars will be summarily rejected.

Tenders received after 25th November 1944 will not be considered.

The rate to be given is for a load mile.
